Conditional Approvals

NOTE: See below – Easement concerns. Also, if NOT on a private road, marking the driveway and notifying R&B is required regardless of whether a public/private road)

Boundary County Road / Idaho State Highway access:

If access (driveway) enters directly onto a County Road or State Highway, an access / approach permit is required.

County Road Access Permit

- Contact: Road & Bridge (208) 267-3838

State Highway, Approach Permit

- Contact: ITD (208) 772-1297

What you do:

1. submit/mail the Residential Placement Permit with proof of easement and application fee of $35: be sure to include the property owner signature (not applicant if applicant is not the owner)
 2. contact Road & Bridge to:
 1. notify R&B that a flag has been placed on driveway center location at named access road
 2. acquire a driveway access permit (or not - the permit is not required if the road is private)
- Upon receipt of your application AND the GIS Mapper's receipt of the GPS point generated by Road & Bridge
3. An address will be established on the named road for you
 4. Your Residential Placement Permit will be issued.
